

W/C - 20/11/2017

Pupil Notes - Anti-Bullying Month – All Equal, All different, Altogether

Portadown

Armagh, Banbridge & Craigavon Policing & Community Safety Partnership (PCSP) is delighted to be hosting the acclaimed play 'The Current' in Portadown Town Hall on Wednesday 22nd November 2017 at 7pm. The PCSP would encourage all youth groups or anyone working with young people to bring them along!

Written by Pamela Cassells School of Performance founder, Pamela Cassells-Totton, The Current takes a very realistic look at the lives of five teenagers who have finished school for the summer. It is a tale of love, loss and regret, beautifully presented with a stunning underscore by acclaimed composer, Mark Dougherty.

This production tackles hard-hitting issues around anti-social behaviour and underage drinking in a way that's never been seen before. As the script progresses, the reality of their behaviours and the lasting impacts of them are portrayed.

To watch our promo video click here: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=0U6GvBgp-i4>

To see what the BBC had to say about this production click here:

<http://www.bbc.co.uk/news/uk-northern-ireland-40193780>

<https://www.eventbrite.co.uk/e/the-current-tickets-39723178095>

Saturday 18th November - U16 Hockey v Wellington College

Wednesday 22nd November - U16 Rugby - Pollock Cup

Monday – no assembly Portadown

Wednesday 29th November - U15 Football v Lismore

Thursday 7th December - U15 Mid-Ulster Cup quarter final v St. Patrick's Dungannon

In preparation for the Year 12 Maths Module in January 2018, Maths Support Classes for Year 12 will run from 3.30-4.30pm on the following days:

Mrs Sally: Wednesday

Mrs Brown: Thursday

Mrs Burns: Thursday

Mobile phones – Reminder mobile phones MUST be switched OFF and kept inside blazer pockets at all times if brought to school

W/C - 20/11/2017

Lurgan

Pupil Notes - Anti-Bullying Month – All Equal, All different, Altogether

Armagh, Banbridge & Craigavon Policing & Community Safety Partnership (PCSP) is delighted to be hosting the acclaimed play 'The Current' in Portadown Town Hall on Wednesday 22nd November 2017 at 7pm. The PCSP would encourage all youth groups or anyone working with young people to bring them along!

Written by Pamela Cassells School of Performance founder, Pamela Cassells-Totton, The Current takes a very realistic look at the lives of five teenagers who have finished school for the summer. It is a tale of love, loss and regret, beautifully presented with a stunning underscore by acclaimed composer, Mark Dougherty.

This production tackles hard-hitting issues around anti-social behaviour and underage drinking in a way that's never been seen before. As the script progresses, the reality of their behaviours and the lasting impacts of them are portrayed.

To watch our promo video click here: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=0U6GvBgp-i>

To see what the BBC had to say about this production click here:

To see what the BBC had to say about this production click here:

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=0U6GvBgp-i4>

To see what the BBC had to say about this production click here:

<http://www.bbc.co.uk/news/uk-northern-ireland-40193780>

<https://www.eventbrite.co.uk/e/the-current-tickets-39723178095>

At the request of the school council Ms Parkinson-Kelly will be in charge of a lunchtime Library club every Tuesday and Wednesday from 1:10 – 1:30 for only those pupils who wish to avail of computers for school work/coursework/homework/studying, or who need to complete research.

Saturday 18th November - U16 Hockey v Wellington College

Wednesday 22nd November - U16 Rugby - Pollock Cup

Monday – no assembly Portadown

Wednesday 29th November - U15 Football v Lismore

Thursday 7th December - U15 Mid-Ulster Cup quarter final v St. Patrick's Dungannon

Anti-Bullying Month – All Equal, All different, Altogether

Learning Together programme trip – Lurgan 12LV1 – Newcastle, Greenhill 21st – 23rd inclusive.

Mobile phones – Reminder mobile phones MUST be switched OFF and kept inside blazer pockets at all times if brought to school

In preparation for the Year 12 Maths Module in January 2018, Maths Support Classes for Year 12 will run from 3.30-4.30pm on the following days:

Mrs O'Neill: Tuesday

Charity Club Lurgan is always on Monday lunch time, room 9 with Ms Parkinson Kelly from Monday 20th November